John Graham Must Get Death Penalty

Jury Swiftly Convicts Son Who Bombed Mother, 43 Others

DENVER (AP)—John Gilbert Graham, outwardly calm and remorseful, was convicted of first degree murder early today in the sabotaging of an airliner that crashed and killed 44 persons, including his widowed mother.

The verdict, without a recommendation from the jury, automatically meant death for the 24-year-old perpetrator of the worst commercial airline tragedy in history.

THE JURY of seven men and five women, deliberated Graham's fate for only one hour and 12 minutes. It received the case at 12:45 a.m. EDT today, signaled the bailiff at 1:57 a.m. that it had reached a decision, filed into the courtroom a few minutes after 2 a.m., and 10 minutes later handed its verdict.

Graham didn't blink an eye while the verdict was being read. A few minutes later he was escorted from the courtroom by four guards. In the hallway just outside the courtroom, he bowed his head while manacles were fastened to his wrists. Then he blinked his eye.

ON HIS WAY to the hall, the defendant passed by his weeping young wife.

Pretty Gloria Graham, 22, mother of the convicted murderer's two children, had burst into tears with the reading of the verdict and was being comforted by a neighbor, Mrs. Helene West, a defense witness.

The jury had four verdicts from which to choose: Guilty of first degree murder with the mandatory death sentence, guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation of life imprisonment, guilty of second degree murder, and acquittal.

In closing arguments, veteran Dist. Atty. Bert Keating pictured Graham as a "greedy, grasping" killer who would, and did, place a homemade time bomb aboard a United Air Lines DC-6B to kill his mother, Mrs. Daisie E. King, 54, for her trip insurance.

The airliner blew to pieces in flight a few minutes out of Denver and crashed in a sugar beet field near Longmont, Colo., the night of Nov. 1. Had the plane not been late in taking off, it would have crashed over the Rocky Mountains, and the sabotage might have gone undetected, as the prosecution claimed was Graham's plan.

Two Freighters Collide in Fog; North Sea Afire

PORTSMOUTH, England (AP)—A Norwegian tanker collided with a Liberian freighter in early morning fog today, sending flames shooting 800 feet above the English Channel and setting the sea afire.

One man died aboard the blazing 9074-ton Norwegian tanker, Erling Bothen, and at least six other crew members were reported badly burned.

Forty to 50 survivors were picked up by rescue craft and by the 7170-ton Liberian ship Santa Rosa, with which the tanker collided. No casualties were reported aboard the Santa Rosa.

TRUE BUT RIDICULOUS (Skill-4)
Doug Stewart was acquitted of the murder of his wife by Randsburg's first all-whiskered jury, and when he had anything to say, he replied, "I just want to get back to the hills. I never would have shot her if I had known there would be so darn much red tape."

And then there was the rancher's widow over Blythe way. When he died she collected $50,000 in insurance. Upon being presented with the check she sighed: "Oh, dear, I'd give $10,000 to have him back."

Even the truth has a ridiculous side to it, and he who can make us laugh at it is the best philosopher.

Mayfair Plans $600,000 Cameron Center Store to Open Next Season

Hardy to Ask Quick Phone Relief Here

Commissioner Will Urge Interim Order To End 'Wire Curtain'

Public Utilities Commissioner Rex Hardy, at the close of the telephone hearing here last night, told representatives of the companies involved that he would recommend "the elimination of the 'wire curtain' with an interim order for relief" to the residents of this area.

Following testimony of protests against the California Water and Telephone Company, Coachella Valley Home Telephone Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company, Hardy reports that it was the opinion of the commissions staff that "there is an answer to the local telephone situation, and I would be less than frank if I didn't say that the record shows a need for some substantial improvement in the service."

The Commissioner said that this would be his recommendation despite the fact that an interim relief was opposed by the companies which claimed that the cost of an interim order could not be offset by benefit to the public.

The hearing was adjourned subject to recall within probably 30 days and Hardy has asked company officials to meet with members of the staff to "agree" on some type of interim action. This meeting will be held in San Francisco.

The two local hearings (April 3 and 4 and May 3 and 4) have established these facts to the commission:

The impossibility of up-grading the telephone service as asked by subscribers because of the tremendous growth;

The insufficient number of switchboard stations at the toll center, causing crowding during the season peak;

And, that the telephone companies do have plans for bettering the service, both on the local level and on long-distance facilities.

Earlier testimony given by Ralph Lowe, traffic toll engineer for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph showed that that company was planning for expansion of its long distance switchboard stations at San Bernardino, from 159 to 251 by February of 1957. The word "technicians was substituted for 'stations' in yesterday's story."

City's Building Inspector Budget of $27,400 Sought

With the June deadline for councilmanic adoption not far off, the City Building Department this week became the first major city department to submit its budget requests to City Manager Peterson for the fiscal year 1957.

Peterson earlier had set a May 10 target date for all department heads to have their new budget requests in his hands. These, after deductions, additions and compromises, will total up to the overall city budget Peterson will submit to the city council for final adoption.

Total 1957 budget submitted by Chief Building Inspector John Sanders is $27,400, up $5903 from the current year's budgeted $21,497. Of the latter figure, only $20,206 will have been actually spent at the year's June 30 end, Sanders said. This would appear to leave a $1291 surplus to revert to the city's general fund.

But because this department is one of the city's few "self supporting" ones, income from building, electrical, plumbing, sign erection, house moving and sewer permit fees, was anticipated at this year's beginning to come to $31,500. If, as now seems likely, this revenue total materializes, the department's returnable budgetary surplus will be $11,294 instead of a mere $1291.

Building permit fees alone for fiscal '56 are expected to approximate $20,000, and a probable $25,000 in 1957. Plumbing permits are second, with the sign erection permits—over which so much hullabaloo occurs—a mere $500.

Ironically, employment of a sign inspector to survey the Village's entire sign problem is in good part responsible, Sanders said, for the $5903 more he is asking in next year's building department budget. Other factors are the $600 car allowance a new inspector automatically gets, and the recent job reclassification plan.

The department's total salary bill last year was $14,561, he added.

"Meanwhile, our work load has gone up 50 per cent," Sanders said. "The only 'luxury' there is in my budget is $332 for a new desk and chair for the new man."

Sanders records show Village building valuation in calendar 1955 was $9,803,862; $5,292,000 in 1954, and $3,843,000 in 1953—an increase sharply underscoring the mounting supervisory load on the department.

Democratic Club to Endorse Assembly Candidates Monday
Palm Springs Area Democratic Club is expected to endorse Robert Erwin for the State Senate and Earl Winderman for Assembly at its meeting at 8 p.m., Monday, at the American Legion hall.

Both men will attend and discuss campaign issues. Herbert Hass, president, will preside.

Chain Signs for Second Location Here

20,000-Foot Space Will Contain Newest Merchandising Aids

Plans for opening of its second store by the 1956-57 season in Palm Springs, emphasizing the tremendous growth of the Village, were made known today by Mayfair Markets.

J. Earl Garrett, president, announced that he has completed a long term lease with George E. Cameron, Jr., for a new Mayfair Market building to be built in Cameron Center on South Palm Canyon Drive. The present location in the Farmers Market will be retained.

The new market, which will represent a total investment including building, fixtures and merchandise of $600,000, will occupy approximately 20,000 square feet, and will carry a full line of fine groceries, meats, fresh fruit and vegetables, frozen foods, liquor and delicatessen.

THE MARKET is to be completely air conditioned and will have many new features such as automatic check stands, top view frozen food cases, terrazzo floors, immaculate meat and produce preparation rooms and "every modern convenience to make shopping pleasant and easy for the residents of the Palm Springs area," Garrett said.

"Our company has been watching the phenomenal growth of Palm Springs for a number of years," Garrett continued. "We have one store in the area now with inadequate parking. We welcome the opportunity to bring to Palm Springs one of our latest model super markets in a shopping center which will accommodate approximately 1000 cars. The growth of Palm Springs corresponds with the rapid growth which is taking place in other California areas and all indications point to a continued future expansion."

"WE BELIEVE Mr. Cameron has selected an excellent site for his proposed shopping center and the design and layout is one of the most progressive we have seen. We feel sure this shopping center will add to the attractiveness of the community."

Garrett estimated it will take approximately 50 people to man the operation, all of whom will be residents of the Palm Springs area. Mayfair now operates 44 markets throughout California and Arizona.

Russell Wade and Lew Levy of Reid-Wade Realtors, exclusive agents for Cameron Center, represented both the Center and Mayfair in the negotiations.

William Cody, AIA, Associated Architects and Engineers, local architect designed Cameron Center here, with others in San Francisco, San Diego, and Havana, Cuba. J. Ray Corliss is manager of the new development.

Rally Will Hear Bob Davenport

Bob Davenport, star fullback of the UCLA football team and chairman of the Youth for Christ movement on the campus, will be guest speaker at a rally of the youth of the Coachella Valley at 7:30 p.m., tonight, at the Palm Springs Community Church.

Others scheduled to participate in the meeting are Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe, the Riverside Junior College Sextet, Palm Springs High School Quartet, trombonist Richard Reakes and Lois Lux at the piano.

Phoenix Hearing on Air Routes to Village Ends

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Civil Aeronautics Board hearing into proposed direct airline service between Phoenix, Salt Lake City and Denver have ended and the government today scheduled more meetings in May in Washington, D.C., before rendering a decision.

A total of 81 witnesses gave testimony in the Phoenix hearing, which started Tuesday. Phoenix had requested CAB approval for the direct flights last September.

Six airlines, which seek to serve the proposed routes if they are granted, were represented at the hearings. The airlines include Western, United, Trans World, Continental, Bonanza and Frontier. All but two proposed scheduled stops at Palm Springs.

During yesterday's hearing, Keith heard testimony from witnesses who came from Wyoming, Montana, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona.

Palm Springs, Calif., officials included R. W. Peterson, Francis F. Crocker, Mayor Florian G. Boyd, James E. Cooper and George Olman.

T. M. Timberlake, an air traffic consultant, also appeared on behalf of Palm Springs. The California resort city sought direct airline service to the East.

Security Traders Here for Outing

One hundred forty members of the Security Traders Association of Los Angeles, San Francisco and Denver are holding their annual outing at the Palm Springs Biltmore this weekend.

Activities include a golf tournament at Tamarisk Country Club. Officers, all from Los Angeles, are Nieland Van Arsdeale, president; John Nevens, vice president; Jim Beck, treasurer.

The association will hold its convention at the Biltmore next October.

Rancho Mirage Hearing Monday

Hearing being held by county supervisors on the proposed incorporation of Rancho Mirage will be resumed at 2 p.m., Monday, in Riverside.

Supervisors postponed decision at the session two weeks ago to clarify the proposed boundaries and to permit additional residents to express their desires for exclusion. Deadline for doing this was April 30.

Northwest Rain Shifts to Showers in Midwest Area

By UNITED PRESS
Showers gave the weekend a wet start for the Pacific Northwest today, dumping more than 1 1/2 inches of rain in 12 hours on Red Bluff in northern California.

Drizzling rain alternated with showers in sections of the Midwest while snow fell over the northern Rockies. More light rain was reported in New England and along the Middle Atlantic Coast.

Carlsbad, N.M., sweltered in 98-degree temperatures Friday, but early this morning residents near Mt. Washington, N.H., watched their thermometers drop as low as 16 degrees.

Sunny skies favored states in the Southern Plains and in the Southwest except along the West Coast. It was generally clear also from the Ohio Valley to the lower Great Lakes and into parts of New England.

3-State Dope Raids Net 138

PITTSBURG (AP)—Police and federal agents turned Pittsburgh and four other cities in Pennsylvania, New York and Ohio upside down Friday night and today in one of the largest narcotics crackdowns of recent months.

Officers working with military-like precision here and in New York City, Steubenville, and Bellair, Ohio and Clairton, Pa., arrested a least 138 persons, 33 of whom were charged as peddlers. Some 100 persons were arrested in Pittsburgh, 21 in Clairton, 15 in Steubenville, one each in New York and Bellair.

However, three prime suspects eluded the dragnet.

Fete Tomorrow

Open House at Desert Hospital will be observed between 2 and 4 p.m., tomorrow, Sunday, with all Villagers and visitors invited to inspect its facilities.

The event is part of National Hospital Week May 6 through 12. Tours will be conducted by members of the Hospital Auxiliary, and departments will have representatives at their posts. Refreshments will be served.

The theme of Hospital Week is "Your Hospital... For You and Your Community."

Emphasis of observation will be on hospitals' many contributions to the communities, according to Roy Henwood, administrator of

All Service Clubs Here Join Greetings to Visiting Lions

All service clubs in Palm Springs today joined in extending greetings to the visiting district Lions, and expressed the hope that their convention would be "very successful."

Extending the welcome were Presidents: William Ford, Kiwanis; Bill Whiteley, Optimist; Wynne Hammond, Soroptimist, and Don Miller, Rotary.

Space Scientists Hunted; Youngish Ones Preferred

LONDON (AP)—A forward looking British aircraft firm advertised today for space scientists and engineers "with upwards of 20 years of useful life ahead."

The advertisement, appearing in a British scientific journal, was believed the first genuine one of its kind.

The name of the firm was kept secret. But the project was believed to have government backing and involved production of manned space ships.

School Land Purchase Voted

Authorization to acquire land to the north of the Cathedral City School site was approved by the board of education of the Palm Springs Unified School District at a special meeting yesterday afternoon.

The board approved the purchase of 4616 acres of property and at the same time, passed a resolution of intention to sell the same parcel of land at the best transactions.

Bored Fireman Sets Fire, Swaps Garb, Fights It

HANOVER, Germany (AP)—Fireman Gerhard Boscobode admitted in court Friday he set fire to a barn, raced home and changed into his uniform and joined his fellow fireman in fighting the blaze.

He said he did it because it was a dull time for fires and his fire house needed practice. The barn burned to the ground.

The unsympathetic judge sentenced Boscobode to two years in prison and ordered him to pay

Parley Failure May Lead Reds to A-Arms Race

LONDON (AP)—Collapse of the five-power disarmament conference without East-West agreement may mean the Soviet Union is willing to pitch healing into an all-out atomic arms race, observers said today.

They said there probably would be two signals from Moscow giving substance to this:

1. The Communist world will still its loud propaganda to ban hydrogen and atomic weapons.

2. The Soviets will announce a sharp reduction in their standing army.

Observers generally agree that the conference of Britain, Canada, France, the United States and Russia failed because Russia lost interest in atomic disarmament.

The Soviets flatly refused to accept western proposals for a program combining both conventional and atomic disarmament.

This radical reversal of the Communist line was taken here as an indication of Russia's new confidence in herself as an atomic power.

Communist Party boss Nikita S. Khrushchev hinted as much recently when he claimed Russia was the first, and so far the only country, to drop a hydrogen weapon from an aircraft.

He also said that within months Russia will have an intercontinental guided missile capable of sending H-bombs "anywhere in the world."

Henwood Asks Good Response to Blood Bank

Robert Henwood, Desert Hospital administrator, today called for a continuation of the excellent Blood Bank response which was started last month when the quota of 25 was exceeded by three pints. The Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank will be here from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday.

The need is as great as ever, Henwood said, as he urged individuals and groups to establish private Blood Banks of their own within the two-county program. "In this way," he added, "you, your family or friends, or members of your organization may draw upon the Blood Bank without cost for the blood itself."

Herbert Hass Tells Background, Program for Election to School Board

Herbert Hass, who has been active in civic affairs since coming to Palm Springs, today released complete information concerning his background and reasons for becoming a candidate for the board of trustees of the Palm Springs Unified School District in the May 18 election.

He first came here as a visitor, decided like many others that there is no better place to live, and so remained here. At the present time he is managing the Del Hai Mo Lodge here.

Regarding his education, Hass holds a bachelor of science degree in economics from the University of Pennsylvania, did graduate work in personnel and management at New York University, and in psychology at the University of Pittsburgh.

HE STARTED in the U.S. Army as a machine gunner, but was removed from the field and sent to school to be trained in the field of psychological and occupational readjustment of wounded soldiers.

Regarding the board of education, Hass said, "I am pleased with the manner in which our schools are run, and would like to see that they so continue, and be improved where possible."

His hobby he described as "good government," pointing out that his fight for "equal representation in the form of redistricting" in Palm Springs has been so time consuming, as well as his efforts to have the state open an employment office that there "is little time left for conventional hobbies."

As to his program, he said the vital problem in the school district is to "retain and to attract the highest type of teaching and administrative personnel." The latter should be "hired and promoted on the basis of effort and achievement, not on personal grounds," with "politics being left out of the schools," he continued.

Elimination of the combined campuses of the high school and junior high school as "soon as practicable" was asked by Hass, as "mixing 18-year-old students with 12-year-olds who are just out of elementary school is not healthy from an educational, psychological or sociological point of view."

Hass said that cooperation with other civic groups is essential because "school problems are community problems." He continued, "I have fought for, and am continuing to fight for community needs as evidenced by my record of effort for civic betterment in equal representation, for the employment office, and also on a cultural level."

In summary, he said, "I have had considerable formal education. I know management problems. I have two children in school and they will be there for over a decade. My record of community service is well known. I have lived in this area long enough to know its needs, and I will benefit the schools, the children and the community if I am elected to the school board."

'Skeets' Minton with Jimmy Morton Headlines New Show in Starlite Room

"Skeets" Minton, who has just completed 10 N.B.C.-TV appearances, will headline the exciting new show which will open tomorrow (Sunday) night in the Starlite Room of Irwin Schuman's Chi Chi.

This is his third appearance with Jimmy Morton at the Chi Chi in two years, returning by audience acclaim. Minton is considered by most people in show people—the people in the know—as America's best technical ventriloquist. Plus comedy, he is noted for his singing impressions of famous stars.

HE HAS APPEARED at the top entertainment spots throughout the country, including the Desert Inn in Las Vegas, Ciro's and Billy Gray's Bandbox in Hollywood, Chez Paree in Chicago, and Beverly Hills Country Club in Cincinnati.

Danii and Genii Prior, one of the most exciting young dance teams in show business today, and Ginny Scott, "the Singing Vision," complete the all-star entertainment bill.

Safety Slogan Set for Schools

Safety slogan for students in the Palm Springs Unified School District next week is "Never play games on the streets, use the playgrounds," according to George Bond, superintendent of transportation.

Each week a different slogan is selected, to be repeated by students as they board buses en route to or from school.

Reich's Friends in Navy, N.A.M. Wish 'Success'

Herman Reich, candidate for Congress, today expressed more confidence than usual. "If hopes, prayers and best wishes can elect a candidate I must stand a pretty good chance," he said, exhibiting a pile of letters from friends in widely scattered places.

Many were from people far removed from this Congressional District, but Reich said he valued their hopes and prayers as much as he would their votes.

Typical of some of the letters he has received was this quote from a letter from John Everson, a retired captain in U.S.N., living in Coronado: "We need good patriots and intelligent citizens like you in Congress, and I pray you make it."

From a friend in the Pentagon, Captain Charles Adair, U.S.N., comes this: "I wish you lots of luck and hope to see you in Washington this next January."

And from Rear Admiral Kenneth Craig, Commander Alaskan Sea Frontier, "I certainly am pulling for you and wishing you every success."

Charles R. Sligh, Jr., President of N.A.M., wrote: "It seems to me that a man with your background can be of real and lasting service to his district and to the nation as a whole. We need more business men in government who have the broad outlook and who are willing to give of their time and effort for the preservation of the American way of life."

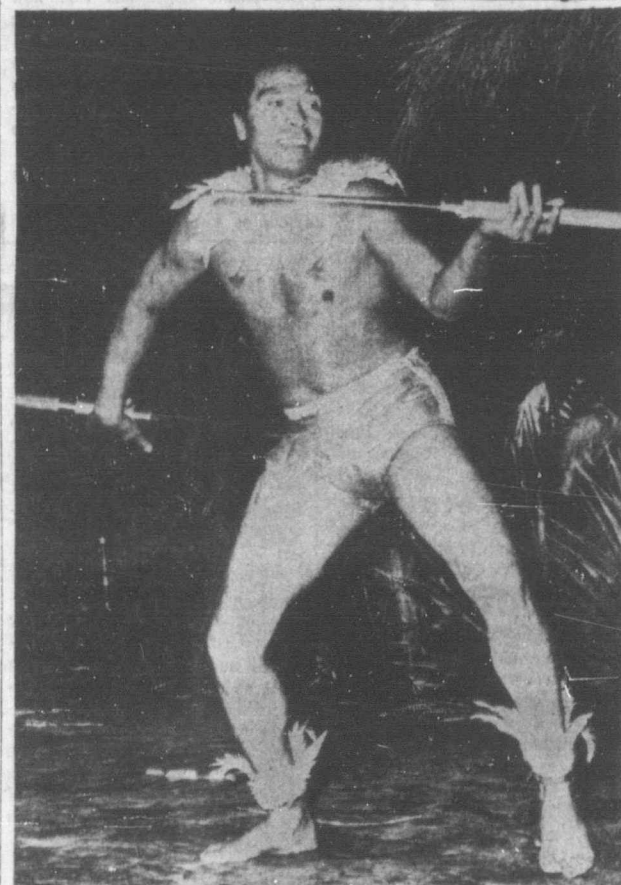

"Too often business men find themselves 'too busy' to make themselves available. It is inspiring to me to learn that you have seen the necessity for such participation and are willing to serve. I sincerely hope you are successful in obtaining the nomination and in being elected to the Congressional seat you are seeking."

DESERT SUN Carrier boys will be visiting the boat dock in Adventureland in Disneyland on Sunday, May 13, as part of their all-day trip there as guests of The Desert Sun. They, like the passengers above, will be loading for a tour of the "Rivers of the World."

All features of Disneyland, plus eight rides, together with hamburgers and hot dogs and other refreshments will be the reward for faithful and conscientious service this year.

Farewell Parties Highlight Activities at Rancho Park

Sunday afternoon and evening was the occasion for a party at Rancho Triller Park given by Drucilla Morgan to her many friends. Assisting Drucilla was her daughter, Catherine Boice and granddaughter Pat Boice from Montebello, and her son, Ted Morgan and wife, LaRaine, from Palm Springs. Also aiding were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Waldvogel of Los Angeles and Ruth Maxwell and Clark Cross from Whittier.

One hundred guests gathered in the Rancho clubhouse to enjoy the hospitality. Punch was served followed by a buffet supper. Following the supper, tables were cleared away and the guests enjoyed a period of singing and dancing. Ward and Lilly Strickland played for the entertainment and Rog Rogers called for the square dancing. The guests included many from Sahara Park, Beckleys Park, Palm Springs Trailer Park, and many friends living in Palm Springs.

As a climax to the party Drucilla further entertained her guests and the Camera Club with a showing of her color slides of Europe.

DAISY ROBERTS and Freda Harclerod were co-hostesses to 42 ladies at a desert bridge and canasta party in the Rancho clubhouse last Friday. Their place cards were most unusual in that they used miniature umbrellas showing Rancho lot numbers instead of names for each of the guests. Helen Leachman was winner of the door prize. Bridge prizes were won by Lue Felix, Pauline Bean and Karla Randall, and canasta prizes were won by Effie Bayley, Laura Saunders and Florence Quigley.

The past week was the occasion for two farewell dinner parties. Loretta Litteral entertained Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Thornhill, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lane. The Rogers and Thornhills are leaving for the Campbell River country.

Betty and Harry Wills together with Janet and Fred Clement were co-hosts at a spaghetti dinner honoring Walter and Frances Bernard who left this week for Yellowstone Park. Among the guests were Lewis and Lyda Hale, Lew and Angie Armell and Roy and Edith Jackson, all of Palm Springs Trailer Village. The guests from Rancho included William and Clover Mauldin and Charles and Barney Allen.

ONE OF THE closing activities of the season was a "hot dog" supper held in the clubhouse Thursday evening and arranged by Laura Saunders. The supper was attended by approximately 200 Ranchoites. Thanks were extended to Mrs. Saunders for her fine work during the past season and congratulations voiced to her upon her appointment as hostess for the coming year. Mrs. Saunders voiced her appreciation to the ladies of the park for their assistance.

Duplicate bridge winners for the past week were Pearl Rogers and Verna Whitesides for east and west, and Madeline Daily and Edith Simmons for north and south. Madeline and Edith bid and made a grand slam, the only one bid and made all season. They scored 2210 points for the one hand.

Rancho residents are saddened by the recent death of Dr. William B. McArthur on April 28. Dr. and Mrs. McArthur had been residents of Rancho for the past six years. He is survived by his wife, Ardath, two sons, John and William, a daughter, Minto, and five grandchildren. Masonic services were held for Doctor McArthur at Wiefels and Son mortuary on Tuesday, May 1. Many of the Doctor's friends, including a group of his Masonic brethren at Rancho, attended the services.

Rog Rogers retires after ten years of square dance calling at Rancho Park. A farewell surprise party was given him Friday evening when a large crowd of his friends participated in making his last appearance a happy one.

Vern Savage, acting as master of ceremonies extended the thanks of Rancho Park and the people of Rancho for the many years of teaching and calling of dances. An orchid was presented to Marge Rogers on behalf of Rancho Triller Park. Rog was also presented with a gift box which upon opening was found to contain a number of silver dollars, a gift from his friends at Rancho.

Weekend Fatalities

It may be some help to automobile drivers to learn that they should be more cautious on certain days of the week and hours of the day in order to avoid accidents. Records show that in 1955 more than 15,000 people didn't return home from a pleasure-bound weekend. Death and injury took no weekends off. The two dangerous days of the week are Saturday and Sunday.

Statistics compiled by Travelers Insurance Companies for 1955 reveal that almost twice as many people were killed on Saturday and also on Sunday as on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday. The Saturday and Sunday combined total numbered 15,730 people killed and 766,090 injured, which represented about 40 per cent of the accidents for the entire week.

Four to 8 p.m. are the hours during which the most accidents occur. It is interesting to note that about three times the number of accidents occur in these hours as against the period from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. People seem to be much more careful driving to work than they are driving home or going out for an evening of pleasure.

The reason for the number of weekend highway fatalities lies in the motoring habits of the American public. Every highway in the nation has its Saturday share of drivers who are bound and determined to arrive at their weekend destination in time for dinner. All too frequently, the strain and fatigue of driving a considerable distance at the end of a busy day is ignored in anticipation of relaxation and rest at the journey's end and all too often the end is never reached.

Millions of dollars have been spent by federal, state and county governments in an effort to provide better and safer roads. More millions are spent by numerous private organizations and insurance companies for programs of safety education. Nevertheless traffic accidents are still on the increase.

It isn't the fault of the road systems and motorists certainly cannot say that they haven't been sufficiently warned. It is the fault of weekend vacationists who try to reach their destination too quickly on heavily crowded highways.

The only way to reduce the tragic number of weekend vacationists who are killed and injured is through an aroused awareness of the weekend highway peril. Motorists must be made to understand that death and injury take no weekends off.

Non-Voting Males
(Courier-News, Elgin, Illinois)

There are a good many people who remember the difficulty women had fighting their way out of second-class citizenry and getting the vote. It now appears that they are fast becoming the ones showing the keenest interest in politics and citizenship, subjects which were once thought to be beyond their understanding and interest.

The question now arises, why are men permitting themselves to slide docilely into a second-class, non-voting, status? Is it that their own welfare and the welfare of the nation are beyond their understanding and interest?

ROBERT S. ALLEN:

WASHINGTON — That disconcerting news President Eisenhower got, at his conference with the foreign affairs leaders of Congress, comes to around $2,000,000,000.

That's the amount Senator Walter George, Ga., and Representative James Richards, S.C., estimate is likely to be lopped off the $4,900,000,000 foreign aid budget the President is vigorously advocating.

Senator George expressed the opinion that the budget his Foreign Relations Committee will probably approve will approximate the $2,700,000,000 voted for this year. Representative Richards put a $3,000,000,000 ceiling on the total his House Committee is most apt to authorize.

None of the legislative chiefs thought the President has much chance of getting the $4,900,000,000 he is urging.

Two main reasons for that stressed by George and Richards are:

On June 30, end of the current fiscal year, there will be a huge accumulation of more than $4,700,000,000 in military aid funds voted by previous Congresses but which are still unspent.

Strong opposition "in and out of Congress" to costly economic aid projects, such as Egypt's giant Aswan Dam, which will eventually increase the competition to U.S. sales in world markets.

"There is no use appropriating more money than can be spent," said Richards bluntly. "They are not even spending the money Congress has granted."

As a graphic example of this, Richards cited statements made to his Committee by Pentagon authorities that military aid expenditures for this fiscal year will be less than the $2,400,000,000 spent last year.

"Deputy Assistant Defense Secretary E. Perkins McGuire informed us," Richards told the President, "that on June 30 there will be on hand more than $4,700,000,000 in unexpended military aid funds. At the rate this money is being spent, that backlog is enough to take care of these requirements for the next two years."

Heartily supporting this view, Senator George said it is doubtful that Congress will approve the $3,000,000,000 for military aid proposed by the President.

"That's a tremendous increase over the $1,200,000,000 voted last year," said George. "I'm in complete agreement with Chairman Richards that it will be extremely difficult to convince Congress this much additional money is necessary."

The President singled out as particularly urgent the $530,000,000 he is seeking to provide our NATO allies with the latest-type planes, tanks, guns and other weapons. He warned that failure to supply the NATO powers with such arms would seriously undermine the effectiveness of the alliance.

George and Richards expressed confidence that Congress will approve this item.

NOTE: One big economic aid project in the Middle East is being quietly shelved. It's the Karaja Dam in Iran, on which $2,415,000 has been spent for machinery and other equipment. Iran has been informed that further financing for this dam should be in the form of loans from the Export-Import Bank. This unpublished decision is contained in a memorandum by Foreign Aid Administrator John Hollister, reading in part: "The U.S. has withdrawn from further participation in the Karaja Dam project."

No further funds have been provided for this purpose in the new budget.

BIG DIFFERENCE — Adlai Stevenson has at least one testimonial that he isn't talking over people's heads.

The story of this comforting experience, as related by Representative Sidney R. Yates (D-Ill.), a warm Stevenson supporter, is as follows:

Riding in a cab to an airport, Stevenson got into conversation with the driver who had recognized him and expressed interest in his presidential campaign. The former Illinois Governor asked the taxi-man's opinion of it.

WASHINGTON REPORT

"Some people tell me I'm inclined to talk over the head of the average person," said Stevenson. "What do you think?"

"Personally, I have no trouble understanding you," replied the driver. "I get it all right, but I'm not so sure about the average person."

IN HOT WATER — President Eisenhower's heavily embattled $4,900,000,000 foreign aid budget has run into a new congressional challenge.

It's over a proposal to provide Yugoslavia with an atomic research reactor.

Leaders of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which is considering the President's big aid program, are hotly up-in-arms over the reactor plan. Atomic Energy Commissioner Harold Vance and John Hall, AEC director of international affairs, were cautiously grilled when they discussed the matter at a private Committee meeting.

"What supervision will the U.S. have to see that the uranium we furnish for this reactor is not diverted to military or other purposes?" demanded Representative James Richards (D-S.C.), chairman.

"Under their bilateral agreements with us," explained Hall, "all countries that receive these reactors are required to allow our technical people to inspect them at any time."

"What if they attempt to produce bombs with this uranium?" asked Representative A. S. J. Carnahan (D-Mo.). "How do we know that won't happen in Communist Yugoslavia?"

"If there is any misuse of this uranium," explained Hall, "we will immediately ask for its return."

"You mean we would send a battleship and Marines to regain the material if a country misuses it?" said Representative John M. Vorys (R-O.).

A very big day
South of the border and Louisville way

Today those delightful people—the Mexicans—are celebrating their Independence.

Also today, at Louisville, Ky., many gentlemen are hoping to celebrate their independence from those window envelopes, for a while at least, by a bit of hand-capping acumen.

SINCE SPORTS has reared its interesting head, let's continue.

I can remember, and so can you, when there weren't enough boys enrolled at Palm Springs high to get eleven out for a football team and the same went for other teams.

But look at 'em now. A serious threat in football last fall, a basketball championship, also titles in swimming and tennis and high up in track.

And the baseball season isn't over yet.

Clare Ballagh, Alex Haymond, Way Reynolds and all of the rest of them have done an excellent job. They deserve the town's support.

And one way to do it is to get in touch with Ballagh and support that high school sports banquet due later this month at Deep Well.

GETTING BACK to the Run for the Roses. They'll probably be off and running by the time you get a copy of this. It depends on the diligence of your newsboy.

But I'll make a wild stab at it anyway.

I like Count Chic.

When I mentioned this at home Mrs. G's comment was:

"Well, don't count chicks before they're hatched."

AND STILL on the sports side.

I don't know how this lines up with the economy of the nation, but do you know that with everything else going up in price, there is one commodity which has not been affected by inflation and costs no more now than when it was first introduced 10, 20, 40 years ago?

That's the $2 pari-mutuel ticket.

And a final comment before leaving the sports section.

Why is it that in Summer when it is hot and sticky, umpires in baseball games wear stuffy blue serge suits and a lot of other gimmicks and in Winter when it is cold, umpires and referees wear thin, striped blazers?

RED KENYON, whose interest in pools has nothing to do with the Kentucky Derby or the World Series, was in messing around with my typewriter — (Woodstock) — and when I returned to finish up something I had started to write, I found this item on the financial situation in Palm Springs interrupting my planned thesis:

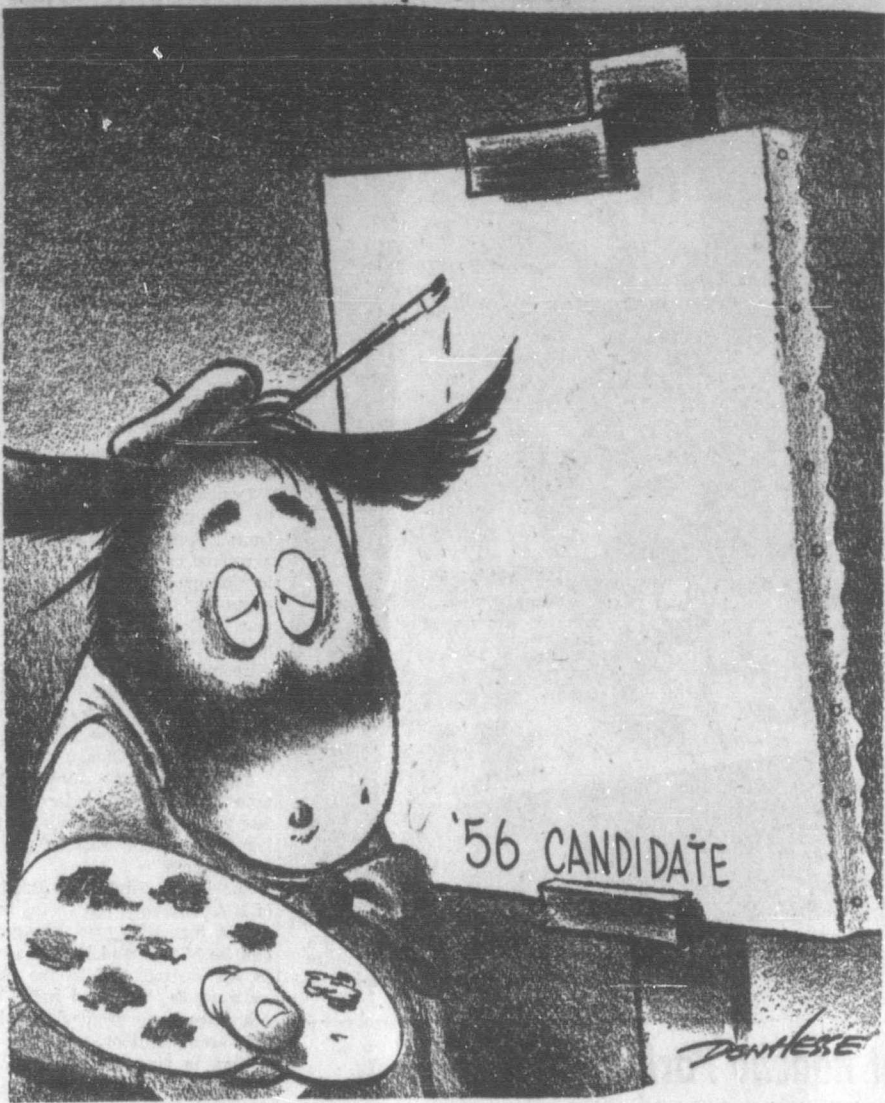

"That, did you know that there is over a half million dollars a year spent here every year just in maintaining swimming pools? This is aside from construction of new pools. Kenyon."

That cuts quite a splash in our economy.

Always striving to keep you informed of the latest—Do you know that there is a new watch on the market which tells you what time it is on Mars?

Why worry only about Daylight Time?

Letters to the Editor

To The Editor:

I wish to extend my personal congratulations along with those of the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce, for your recent front page editorial, titled "Close the Gap," and your interest in attempting to correct the unsafe conditions that now exist on the highway between Palm Springs and Indio.

As a Chamber of Commerce that is extremely interested in correcting this hazardous condition, we would like to assist you in this matter.

We are attaching copy of a resolution which we have prepared and are submitting to the Division of Highways, State of California, in Sacramento, San Bernardino, and San Diego.

Also, we are requesting the Chambers of Commerce in this area and the cities of Palm Springs and Indio to take similar action.

Again, congratulations for your stand in this matter and your other contributions to the development of the Coachella Valley.

Sincerely yours,
HAL KAPP, President,
Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce.

There'll be more people at work here during the summer months ahead than ever before in the history of Palm Springs. That is, during the months of June, July and August.

And furthermore, there will be more visitors in our midst enjoying the hot summer sun and the balmy evenings than ever before, also during the summer months.

There will be more hotels in operation throughout the summer, many of them boasting of the fact that accommodations are air refrigerated or that "guests may enjoy the weather they like within their rooms and suites."

It was announced five days ago that Palm Springs had hit another $1,000,000 in building permits for a total of more than $6,000,000 for four consecutive months. And with indication that permits to be issued will continue at the same rate this month, is the foundation for the sure prediction that more people will be employed here during the summer than ever before.

UNEDITED for a number of years has been yapping about air refrigeration as a positive lure for summer visitors. Now many of the hotels which remained opened all summer are in the process of doing so. All of the new hotels which opened early this year or rather during this season, have refrigeration in each room or central air-conditioning units.

Now that this is all coming to pass, perhaps a group of the hotel owners who operate around the year would like to sit down with representatives of Western Airlines and work out a summer program to bring more and more persons to Palm Springs from fog-shrouded areas of the Northwest and the humid atmosphere of some of the Western states.

A credit plan to induce vacationers to spend a summer vacation in Palm Springs is workable. I know this can be worked out with the assistance of Western Air Lines, Florida, with the aid of similar transportation firms, has been doing that very thing for a number of years. Now it is hard to obtain accommodations in Miami without reservations far in advance.

Remember Miami or other Florida resorts are humid, sticky places during summer months. We can have a good summer season here if there is concerted teamwork and would benefit everybody business-wise, I am sure.

BY THE WAY, do you know that Irwin Schuman starts the enlargement of the Starlite Room on or about June 1? The stage will be larger and will be lifted a bit more for easier viewing from any part of the room. The Starlite Room, I am informed, will hold approximately 500 persons when completed and at a cost that will run in excess of $100,000, a little bird informed me.

There is one man in town who believes that our telephone service is "actually wonderful." A compositor at The Desert Sun, he has set a large number of stories complaining about the telephone service so he came in with this:

"I called Pawtucket, R.I., and deposited the $2.20 as directed by the telephone operator. When I finished talking and hung up the receiver out came my $2.20. Why it's better than playing a slot machine in Las Vegas where one always loses. I think the telephone service is wonderful!" However, he called the operator back, informed her of what had happened and re-deposited the coins with the admonishment that if they came tumbling out again he would keep the money. The $2.20 stayed this time.

AND AMONG OTHER things Frank Scully writes with a jocular barb at each end of his letter to Unedited, quoted in part:

"If you want to keep the subscribers you have without billing them at the morgue, why don't you make a pest of yourself until that Highway 111 is either made into a four lane highway all the way or doubled with no passing allowed from Palm Springs to Shadow Mountain. And a speed limit of 35 miles an hour. This will set guys with high-powered cars so crazy they may turn their cars in for road construction material and equipment and do the job themselves."

I'm going to go with the rest of your suggestions, Frank, except the endorsement of political candidates — against policy, you know.

Thanks, Dan Howard, for those Aztec masks. Will take them home today. And Howard continues with the following line: "He is a wise father who knows as much as his oldest son thinks he does."

EARL WILSON:

'Sweet Girl'

NEW YORK—In a restaurant on the bullfighters' street in Madrid, my legwoman—my wife—sized up Sophia Loren, the Italian movie beauty.

And what a size to size up! Since I couldn't get to Spain, my B.W. inspected "Sofeuh" — and reported she's a "sweet girl."

We hope she won't sue us for libel for saying that.

On the Madrid streets all the men seemed to know this Italian import. They stared and the B.W. said, "There is a lot to stare at."

But not too much. Sophia of the fantastic figure was learning jive talk from Frank Sinatra. She'd already mastered early jive such as "You're a gasser" and had progressed to more daring terms.

"Sometimes" — Sophia spoke with a slight British accent since her teacher in Rome is Irish — "people teach you a word they say is a good word. But it means something very bad."

Sophia stared across a big Spanish omelet at Frank, a little accusingly, as she said this. Frank grinned and repeated, "You're a gasser."

Only 21, this Neapolitan beauty who's bigger upstairs than Gina Lollobrigida and who wears her dresses tighter than Marilyn Monroe, had been brought from Italy by Staaley Kramer to make "The Pride and the Passion" with Sinatra and Cary Grant.

She'd just mastered the Flamenco dance so successfully that everybody was complimenting her.

But other people had English troubles, too.

Her Flamenco tutor, a Spaniard, wishing to compliment her, exclaimed, "You're terrible, terrible, terrible!" He was a little mixed up and thought he was telling her she was good.

Sophia laughed. She helped herself to two big portions of prawns in curry, on mounds of rice floating in butter. Some girl, some appetite!

"I want to get married when I am 24 or 25, and he must be intelligent but not handsome," Sophia said.

"Why not handsome?" my B.W. asked her.

"Because I'm jealous. I couldn't stand it if other women looked at him. I haven't found him yet."

"You never pose for cheese-cake pictures?" the B.W. said.

"I don't need sexy photographs to be sexy," Sophia retorted.

Maybe she doesn't do cheese-cake pictures, but they come out cheesecake. In dignified Spain they put Priscilla collars and tidy little berthas and ruffles around her bare neckline to fence her in, but she can't be fenced in.

"Do you think skinny little guys like Sinatra are romantic?" the B.W. inquired.

"I just now know Sinatra," Sophia said. "I know better Cary Grant. He is very friendly and I hope we will go on together."

"Could you care for a bull-fighter?"

"It makes no difference what two people do for a living. It's just when the man and woman happen to click."

She'd never seen a bullfight, but was supposed to that day. But that day's fights were cancelled.

"I'm glad," she said.

Sophia will be here in 1957—if you can wait—and will do "Desire Under the Elms" at Paramount for Hecht and Lancaster. I thought the B.W. did a fine job of interviewing Sophia—even brought back her vital statistics (38-24-38), but I think everybody'll agree that I should go next time myself, because interviewing the Sophia Lorens of the world is really man's work and we hope man's work will never be done.

One Service Starts Sunday at Community

Beginning this Sunday the Community Church of Palm Springs will have only one morning worship service. The 9:30 service has been discontinued and the adults are invited to come to the Adult Bible classes which meet at that time.

The young adults are meeting with Dr. James Blackstone, Jr., pastor, as teacher, and other adults will meet with Frank Cary in the church sanctuary. There are Sunday school classes for all age groups.

At 11 the regular worship service will be held and Dr. Blackstone has chosen for the subject "The Fruit of the Spirit." The Chancel Choir under the direction of Elmer Young will bring the special anthem "Omni-potency" by Schubert. Mrs. Lois Lux accompanies the choir on the organ.

A nursery is held from 9:30 until 12 for the care of small children with a trained nurse in attendance.

At 6:15 the Christian Endeavor Societies will meet. The Junior Department, meeting in the youth chapel, will have a student participation and discussion on the 23rd Psalm, Frank Humberger and Mrs. Kathleen Catherwood are in charge of this group. The High School C. E. will meet at the same time in the church parlor and they will have Rev. Jack Morrow as a special speaker.

Geologists say in 1,000 years Niagara Falls will begin to turn into a series of rapids.

The new American Baptist Church Extension Project in Indio will begin Sunday, meeting at the corner of Regua and Jackson Streets as a temporary location.

Regular Sunday services will be observed with the morning worship hour at 9:30 a.m. with the Sunday School following at 10:35 a.m. The Rev. Richard A. Uzzel, minister of the First Baptist Church in Thermal, will serve as temporary minister until a new minister comes in the fall. His sermon for next Sunday's services will be entitled: "The Church's One Foundation." Mrs. Don Dutton of Thermal will serve as temporary organist for the new work.

The new church will be known temporarily as the "First Baptist Church." It is sponsored jointly by the Thermal First Baptist Church and the Church Extension Department of the Southern California Baptist Convention. It will be affiliated with the American Baptist Convention.

Church of Christ Established Here

A survey has just been completed in the Palm Springs and Cathedral City area by the Uptown Church of Christ in Long Beach, under the supervision of Evangelist Jerome Hogan.

The cooperation of Churches of Christ over a wide area of Southern California and local residents, has resulted in the establishment of a working group of disciples of Christ in the area.

The worship place is at present established at 32-890 Whispering Palms, in the home of James D. Brister. Evangelist Hogan will reside at 705 "C" street, Cathedral City and serve the congregation and community in Christian interests.

New Minister to Succeed Rev. Hass in July

Our Savior's Lutheran Church received word this week that the Rev. Walter Reuning of Westfield, New Jersey, will be the new pastor to succeed the Rev. LeRoy Hass.

Pastor Reuning is to graduate from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, Missouri, in June of this year. In all probability he will arrive in Palm Springs the early part of July.

Pastor Hass and his family will be returning to Japan to continue their missionary endeavors. June 10 is to be Pastor Hass' last Sunday in Palm Springs, before returning to Japan. After a trip to the Midwest, he and his family will fly to Japan in July, according to present plans.

"Christ's Ascension and the Christian Life" is the sermon topic scheduled for the Sunday morning service. An invitation is issued to all to attend these services.

Holy Communion to be Marked

The major service of Rogation Sunday at St. Paul's in the Desert church will be marked by the celebration of the Holy Communion at 11 a.m. The choir will sing the Fairclough setting of the communion service, and the rector will preach. Holy Communion will also be celebrated at 8 a.m., the family service beginning at 9:15 a.m.

Next Thursday, Ascension Day, Holy Communion will be celebrated at 10 a.m., at which time the United Thanks Offering of the women of the church will be received. This special "Blue Box" offering by women of the Episcopal Church has grown in size and importance through the years, and now underwrites a good portion of the special missionary work of the church.

The Rector has requested that any women who cannot attend the service send in their offering to the church office.

Ascension Day will mark the last Thursday morning celebration of the Holy Communion service for this spring season. Mid-week services will be resumed in the fall. Regular Sunday schedule will continue at coming weeks.

CONFIDENT LIVING

By Norman Vincent Peale

The term "inferiority complex" seems to have become a permanent part of our language. It is now even a subject for popular jokes, such as the one about the man who goes to a psychiatrist to be cured of his inferiority complex. A few months later, he meets a friend who asks him what progress he is making with his cure. "Oh," he answers, "I'm doing fine. The doctor has discovered I really don't have an inferiority complex; he's found that I am inferior!"

Of course, the truth is that, if we are inferior, it is because we ourselves or our experiences in life have made us that way. I remember one man in his thirties with strong feelings of inferiority who came to us at the church clinic for help. We traced his basic problem back to a childhood experience.

As a child, he had fallen into a swimming pool and almost drowned. After he had been pulled out, his frantic mother, hugging him to her bosom, said, "You must never go near the water again."

She continued to encourage in the child the unutterable fear of the water. He would sit back about fifty yards from a pool watching other boys have the time of their lives, but he would go no closer. Then he began to feel that, not only could he not swim, but he also could not do many things other boys did. This eventually developed into a deep sense of inferiority and inadequacy. He was desperate when he came to us.

His was almost a perfect case because it was so easy to trace the origin of his condition. Even his conversation was filled with symbols of his fear of water. I would say to him: "You can do this. You can do that."

He would reply: "No, I'm afraid it's over my head. It's too deep. If I try, I'll be sunk."

The idea of inferiority had been driven so deeply into his consciousness by this early experience that it permeated everything he did. He had struggled hard against it, but expended so much energy in so doing that he was now on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

An inferiority complex is a series of emotionally toned ideas ranged about a central idea of self-doubt and disbelief. The consciousness holds this central idea in a spasmodic grasp and no amount of mental determination can break its hold. The only successful cure is to insinuate a stronger idea into the mind and, through thought substitution, eliminate the inferiority concept.

So, we helped this man overcome his inferiority complex by substituting for his long-held concept of defeat the revolutionary idea that he could actually have God's power in his life.

Each of us has, deep within the mind, all the power he needs. The Bible describes that power in the words, "The Kingdom of God is within you," meaning that all we need to live victoriously is within our mind and personality. In this respect, no one need be inferior, and real inferiority consists of failing to put this power to work.

The Unity School of Christianity, a non-denominational movement to teach religious principles as a practical way of life, has issued a new book, "The Unity Treasure Chest." It emphasizes the power of the God-thought to drive out the inferiority-thought. It says: "A knowledge of our relation to God will enable us to chart the course of our life and direct it perfectly. Assured that God is all, over all, and through all, and that we are part of Him, we shall not look out upon the world as a scene of capricious uncertainties to which we are subject. We know that every problem can be solved, every illness healed, good always made manifest; because 'one on God's side is a majority.'"

'Martin Luther' Film Scheduled

The Cathedral City Community Church is to show the moving picture "Martin Luther" at 7:30 p.m., tomorrow, by courtesy of the Palm Springs Community Church.

At the morning service at 11, the pastor speaks an "The Value of the Old Testament to Christians and to the World."

The church observes Mothers' Day, May 13, Children's Day and Pentecost on May 20, Trinity Sunday, with Communion on May 27. A Daily Vacation Bible School is planned during the first two weeks of June, and family services of worship will be held through July and August. Rev. Dr. Graham Hunter is pastor.

'Science of Mind' to be Sermon

Believing with Emerson that, "Enlightenment is the only salvation," Dr. Irma Glen, minister of the Church of Religious Science, has chosen as her subject for Sunday, "How To Use The Science Of Mind."

According to Dr. Glen "Laure is a Power for good in the universe which is available to everyone to use. Religious Science teaches what this Power is, how it works, and how you can use it to help yourself and others. We teach how to pray scientifically. This is applied Christianity."

The Church of Religious Science services is at 10:45 a.m. in El Paseo Theater, and is preceded by a period of organ meditation music composed especially for the occasion by Dr. Glen. Miss Elaine Noble, coloratura soprano and artist pupil of the noted Maestro Pietro Cimini of the San Francisco Opera Association, will be the guest soloist, accompanied by Dr. Glen. She will sing "Care Selve," from the opera "Atalanta" by Handel.

Regular midweek services of the Church of Religious Science will be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, in the home of Mrs. John (Theora) Wight, 792 Mesquite.

'By What Authority' to be Sermon Topic

"By What Authority?" is the sermon topic announced by the Rev. A. Keith Bauserman for the 11 a.m. services this Sunday at the Desert Hot Springs Baptist Church.

At the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday the Rev. Bauserman's topic will be "Able and Willing."

Elks Members, Guests Contribute $1,000 to Club's Cerebral Palsy Fund

Palm Springs Elks Lodge annual dinner dance for the benefit of its Cerebral Palsy fund was termed a "great success" today, with more than 500 persons in attendance and slightly in excess of $1,000 raised.

All proceeds go to the Cerebral Palsy fund, and will be presented to the state president at the annual convention in San Jose by Exalted Ruler Pat Cohen.

Special entertainment was featured, besides music provided for dancing.

John Gallerani was chairman of the event, with co-chairmen being Rudy Salazar, Pat Stanbaugh, Bill Scharf, Charles St. George, Arnold Maggini and Phil Palluso.

Gallerani and Cohen expressed their appreciation to Elks members and friends who attended the dance, and thereby contributed to charity.

At 6:30 p.m., tomorrow, all Scholarship and Leadership contestants and their parents will be honored by the Elks at a dinner at the club rooms on Highway 111. Winners will be announced at that time.

Dr. C. H. Baldwin is chairman of this competition, assisted by Bill Coffin.

Expressways Safer

DETROIT (AP)—Police say the city's two expressways are 10 times safer than Detroit's six major non-express streets. The accident rate on the expressways is 200 accidents in 100,000 vehicle miles compared with 2,000 accidents in 100,000 vehicle miles on the six main thoroughfares.

The roar of the lion resounds in Palm Springs this weekend . . . with around 900 Lions here for their district convention . . . and Lionesses who accompanied their husbands, enjoyed a style show luncheon at Chi Chi this noon . . . Tonight is a big night for Rotary, too . . . as they hold their Inter-City dinner dance at the Tennis Club . . . with Orange Rotarians and their Rotary Anns as guests . . . It is luau time out at Thunderbird tonight . . . and several hundred members and their guests will feast and dance . . . and watch special entertainment . . . Out at the Palm Springs Biltmore 150 stock and bond men from all up and down the Pacific coast, are in convention . . . That's some of the things that are going on in the Village this evening . . .

Nice dilemma tonight . . . for those who are invited to the Costello's annual Mexican champagne-frijoles party . . . and are going on to the big luau at Thunderbird . . . How do you dress for that . . . Mexican or Hawaiian . . . or a half and half mixture? . . .

Tomorrow evening the Polo Club has its last affair of this season . . . a chuckwagon supper at the Roberson Ramada out on the desert above Shadow Mountain Club . . . The George Robersons and the Irving Snyder will be the hosts . . . Jack Boyer will prepare the chuckwagon . . . and the Wagoneers will play under the stars . . .

Oasis Ends 31st Season

Dewey W. Metzdorf, general manager of Oasis Hotel, will turn the key in the front door on Sunday night, May 6, closing the famed hostelry for its 31st season. He reports this has been the hotel's most successful season, and with the termination of the Lions Club convention this weekend, the Oasis will have been host to 16 conventions this season. The famed hotel, which is an old name in Palm Springs, but completely new in construction, opened 36 luxury lanai suites last October. This huge construction took all last summer to build and greatly beautified the grounds with its new modern lines. Oasis Hotel has been operated by Western Hotels, Inc., of which Metzdorf is a vice president, since 1952. Always with an eye toward improvement of the facilities at the Oasis, Metzdorf now is having a television room constructed adjoining the lobby, but its a completely separate room with soundproofing and can seat 50 persons. Mr. and Mrs. Metzdorf will fly to Seattle on May 10 for a visit with their two sons and families, and on June 1 will board another plane for a flight to Honolulu. They plan to vacation in the Islands two months. During his stay in Honolulu Metzdorf will consult and advise on the management of Western Hotels, Inc., new project in Honolulu. The Henry J. Kaiser hotel, Hawaiian Village, was taken over last month by Western Hotels Inc., a Seattle corporation, headed by S. W. Thurston, which now operates hotels from Honolulu to Denver and from Palm Springs to Vancouver, British Columbia.

With the exception of a small acreage in Arizona, the Coachella Valley is the only date-producing area in the United States.

At one time, many years ago, 300,000 llamas were engaged in hauling ores and metals from the mines in Peru.

Interesting Personalities are Guests

The Garden Room at the Palm Springs Biltmore has had a number of interesting personalities among its guests.

The other evening Tennessee Ernie Ford and his charming wife were there with the Jack Fascinatos, who have a home in Palm Springs. Ford's new album, "The Lusty Land" will feature songs, many of them over two centuries old, for which Fascinato made all the musical arrangements.

Among other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Nicky Naylack. He is the MGM producer, whose last picture was "Forbidden Planet." His next it to be "The Power and the Prize," starring Robert Taylor with Elizabeth Mueller, Charles Coburn, Sir Cedric Hardwick, Burl Ives and Mary Astor. Among others were Bill Welsh, TV sports announcer, who has just bought a new home here; Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon (he is president of the Cherry Hills

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Fearless Fraley's facts and figures as they pay off the mortgage on the "Old Kentucky Home" at Churchill Downs today:

The "experts" contend that Needles, the Kentucky Derby favorite, got a bad break in drawing the number one post position. But there have been more winners out of that stall—nine—than from any other position since 1900.

Post positions four and five Pin-tor Lea and Head Man each have sprung the winner eight times— and Clyde van Dusen won from the 20th post position in 1929.

ONE THING seems certain, the winner is going to have to gallop at a near-record clip. Whirlaway set the Derby record of 2:01.2 in 1941. Of the seven closest times to his mark, six have come in the last six straight years, proving, no doubt, that they're really improving the breed.

This is the 11th straight year in which the race hasn't drawn a filly. In the 82 runnings of the race there have been only 23 fillies sent to the post and only one, Regret in 1915, managed to cop the roses. Only one other was second with five finishing third.

It still could be a ladies' day, however. Mrs. Helen Kellogg's Come On Red and Mrs. L. P.

Indian Athletes to be Honored at Banquet May 21

Annual Letterman's banquet for Palm Springs high school athletes is scheduled for May 21 at Deep Well Inn. In addition this year, members of the band will also be guests.

The Rev. Bob Richards, champion pole vaulter will be the speaker.

Members of various service clubs in the city are aiding in sponsoring the banquet and any who wish to attend and help are urged to contact Clare Ballagh, high school coach.

Tate's Jean Baptiste are seeing their silks in the race for the first time. Eight women have owned winners, the late Mrs. Payne Whitney and Mrs. John D. Hertz scoring twice.

WADDAYA MEAN "Black Beauty"? Only four black colts have won this three-year old classic while only one gray, Determiner in 1954, came home on top. Bays have been the best, with 36 wins, while chestnuts captured 28 and browns 12. Which is better than the Browns ever did in St. Louis, at that.

This race might be called the "Ben Jones Special" and the stretch referred to as "Arcaro Alley." Jones has trained six winners while Arcaro, making his 17th Derby ride on Head Man, has parted the wire a record five times with that banana nose.

ODDS FAVOR a Kentucky-bred winner. Blue grass speedsters have taken the last 65 times with three winners from Tennessee, two from Texas, New Jersey and California, and one each from Montana, Missouri, Ohio, Virginia and Kansas. The English-bred Omar Khayyam, 1917, was the only foreign-foaled winner.

The largest field was 22 in 1928 and the smallest were the three-horse gallops of 1892 and 1905. Shortest payoffs were the $2.80 you got for a deuce on Count Fleet in 1943 and Citation in 1948. The fat one was Donerail's $184.00 for a two buck investment in 1913... and man, that's real inflation!

Sports Car Club Plans Session

Palm Springs Sports Car Club meets Monday night to consider many important items.

Incorporation, selection of a club emblem and several other matters are on the agenda and a full attendance of members is asked.

The meeting will be held at Howard Manor starting at 8 p.m.

Academy Team Wins Women's Bowling Honors

Palm Springs Bowling Academy

team won the Women's Bowling League championship which came to an end at the local alleys last week. Captained by Karen Christy, they wound up the 29-week campaign with a comfortable 7½ game margin.

Besides Capt. Christy, members of the team were Martha Peeler, Elsie Hendrickson, Lou Paul and Virginia Breitweg.

Second place went to Center Beauty Salon which numbered Capt. Dorothy Frost, Carol Hickin, Hulda Schaeffer, Carolyn Logan and Dotie Manthey. The Salon had the high game of the campaign with 943 while the Holms Construction company team rolled the high team series with 2588.

Individual scoring honors went to Billie Pepper with a high game of 206 and high series of 524. Vi Hubbs rolled an even 200 for second high game.

Newly elected officers for the 1956-57 season are Karen Christy, president; Lou Paul, vice-president; Billie Hendron, secretary and treasurer.

League play in next season's campaign will start in September and anyone interested in joining is asked to contact the Palm Springs Bowling Alley at 378 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Landy Features Coliseum Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Australia's greatest track star, smooth-striding John Landy, will seek to give the United States its first mile race in four minutes or less today when he races in a special event during the Southern California-UCLA dual track meet.

The schoolmaster with the flying heels will try to achieve the classic performance against a field of six opponents that includes Ireland's Ron Delany, a sophomore at Villanova University in Philadelphia.

Keough to Seals

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Outfielder Marty Keough, who batted .330 for Louisville last year and led the American Association in triples, has been released to the San Francisco Seals by the Boston Red Sox.

Mathews' Bat Keeps Braves on Top of NL

Touted As Player Who Can Lead Club Into Series

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Manager Charlie Grimm insists Eddie Mathews is the man who can lead Milwaukee into the World Series this year and, be that as it may, he certainly is the man who kept the Braves in first place today.

It was Mathews' 10th inning single that scored Johnny Logan from second base Friday night with the run that gave the Braves a 3-2 victory over the Giants and kept them 52 percentage points ahead of the second-place Cardinals.

"Notice how often one of Mathews' hits figures in our winning a ball game," Grimm points out. The Milwaukee manager has a point well taken. Of the six games the Braves have won so far, hits by Mathews have had a direct influence on three of them. His clutch hit Friday night sent southpaw Johnny Antonelli down to defeat.

DAVE JOLLY, who relieved Lew Burdette in the 10th, was credited with his second victory in as many games. He has now gone seven innings without yielding either a hit or a run.

The Cardinals exploded for seven runs in the sixth inning to hand the Dodgers a 10-3 setback.

In the seventh, move after a slow start, notched Cubs a 2-1 victory over Robin Roberts.

The White Sox moved into a first place tie with the Yankees in the American League by beating the Senators, 5-2 after New York had defeated Kansas City, 10-6.

Willard Schmidt was the winner although it was ancient Elsie Kinder who checked the world champions after they rallied for two runs against Lindy McDaniel in the seventh.

Cincinnati, which is starting to move after a slow start, notched its seventh victory in eight games by nipping Pittsburgh, 4-3, on Art Fowler's six hit pitching.

Ernie Banks blasted his fifth homer with one on to give the Cubs a 2-1 victory over Robin Roberts of the Phillies.

THE WHITE SOX moved into a first place tie with the Yankees in the American League by beating the Senators, 5-2, after New York had defeated Kansas City, 10-6.

Although they were limited to three hits, the Orioles defeated the Indians, 4-3. Southpaw Herb Score, who was routed in the third inning, was the victim of two passed balls by battery-mate Hal Naragon that helped the Orioles to two runs in the first inning.

Southpaw Mel Parnell, making his first start since last Aug. 15, pitched the Red Sox to a 6-4 victory over the Tigers although he required relief from Dave Sisler in the ninth after Bill Tuttle homered and Al Kaline singled.

PCL Race Tight with Four Clubs Bunched at Top

By DON THACKREY

United Press Sports Writer

The Pacific Coast League leaders, who usually being stringing out in single file about this time in May, looked more like a chorus line today after last night's results.

Sacramento and Los Angeles were in a flat tie for first, Seattle was in a virtual tie a few percentage points back and the San Francisco Seals were in fourth place—a full game out.

San Francisco and Los Angeles achieved shutouts last night to help scramble the first division, the Seals blanking Sacramento 5-0 while Los Angeles zeroed Vancouver 9-0. Seattle kept it close by losing to Portland 9-5 and San Diego crept up on the first division with a cliffhanger finish to nip Hollywood 5-4.

Hollywood looked like a coasting winner until the final two frames against San Diego. The Stars had a 4-0 lead but it disappeared when Dick Aylward hit a solo homer in the eighth and then the Padres added four runs in the top of the ninth.

CHARLES SIGNS

NEW YORK (AP)—Former world heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati, has signed to meet Wayne Bethea of New York in a 10-round bout at St. Nicholas Arena, May 21. The bout will be widely telecast.

FAVOR NEEDLES TO WIN RICHEST DERBY OF ALL

By RAY AYRES

United Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Needles, son and grandson of a champion, was expected to break from the post as the favorite of a crowd of 100,000 at Churchill Downs today in the richest Kentucky Derby of them all.

Seventeen pampered three-year-old colts were slated to start in the 82nd running of America's most famous horse race, and that huge field would make the total purse a record $167,550.

One entrant, the lightly-regarded Come On Red, may be scratched unless the racing strip is muddy. There seemed but little chance of mud, however, for the weather man was predicting "nice spring weather, with no rain" here at racing's "old Kentucky Home."

POST TIME for the famous "Run for the Roses" was listed for 5:30 p.m. EDT. (2:30 PDT).

If all 17 sleek colts start in the mile-and-a-quarter classic, the winner's purse will be a whopping $123,450, and the majority of "experts" at this quaint old racing plant think Needles will earn this pot for the D. and H. stables, owned by Bonnie Heath and Jack Dudley.

The handsome Florida-bred colt, winner of the Florida Derby, has loads of tradition on his side—his granddaddy, Pensive, came home in front in 1944 and his daddy, Ponder, conquered in 1949.

Like Ponder, Needles is a come-from-behind racer who is expected to benefit little from the usual "good break" of drawing the No. 1 post position. Some folks think jockey Dave Erb, riding in his third derby, may have lots of trouble threading Needles through such a huge field after his usual slow start.

But a United Press poll of 65 sports writers covering the race found 37 picking the Florida champion.

READY TO PROVE that this was a mistake were the Calumet Farm entry of Fabius and Pintor Lea; C. V. Whitney's entry of Career Boy and Head Man; Count Chic, Countermind, High King, Ben A. Jones, Terrang, Besomer, Black Emperor, No Regrets and the "field" horses—Come On Red, Jean Baptiste, Invalidate, and King O'Swords.

Racing horses in the Kentucky Derby is old hat to Calumet Farm whose entry was listed as second choice. Eleven Calumeteers sported the Devil-Red and Blue silks in 10 previous derbies with five of them bounding home winners.

Owner Whitney was back for an eighth try for the rich winner's purse. He has started nine horses without winning and had two Derby-winning jockeys board his horses to break the jinx—all-time Derby champ Eddie Arcaro, who won with five of his 17 Derby mounts, ride Head Man while Eric Guerin, winner once in four rides, handled Career Boy.

Hemet Wins in 12 Innings Over Tribe

Eight Scoreless Innings Wind Up In Burst Of Runs

By JOHN SIMON

Palm Springs baseball squad lost a heartbreaker yesterday as Hemet's Ray Sims bested Lloyd Brubaker in a 12 inning pitching duel 4-3 at the Polo Grounds.

Lead off batter, Charlie Knott blasted Sims' first pitch of the game into centerfield for a single. This was the last hit the Indians got until the ninth inning.

AFTER THE REGULATION seven innings—the score stood at 0-0 and remained that way until the top of the ninth when the Bulldogs got three runs on two walks, two singles, and a wild pitch. The Indians came back for three in the bottom of the ninth, however, when Charlie Brown knocked in two runs with a double and scored on a single by Lennie Ruiz.

The score remained tied until the top of the 12 when Hemet pushed across one run on a base loaded bouncer that rolled off the outstretched finger tips of Brubaker. Although the Indians had the tie breaking run on third base in the tenth and eleventh innings, they were unable to push them across.

BRUBAKER WHO STRUCK out six and walked eight had tremendous fielding support from his team. Charlie Brown caught four drives in deep center and Lennie Ruiz made an unbelievable tumbling catch of a hard hit blast to right. The infield played errorless ball, and catcher, Joe Lewis, committed the only error when he dropped a pop up which did not figure in any scoring.

Sims, on the other hand, received weak support from his team which committed four errors in the three hour contest.

Game Committee to Visit Village

Members of the State Senate Interim Committee on Fish and Game will be in Palm Springs the afternoon of May 15 at the conclusion of a tour of big game management problems in Riverside County.

The group will arrive May 14 and after a tour of the San Jacinto mountain area will meet at Anza Community Hall for a hearing on the situation.

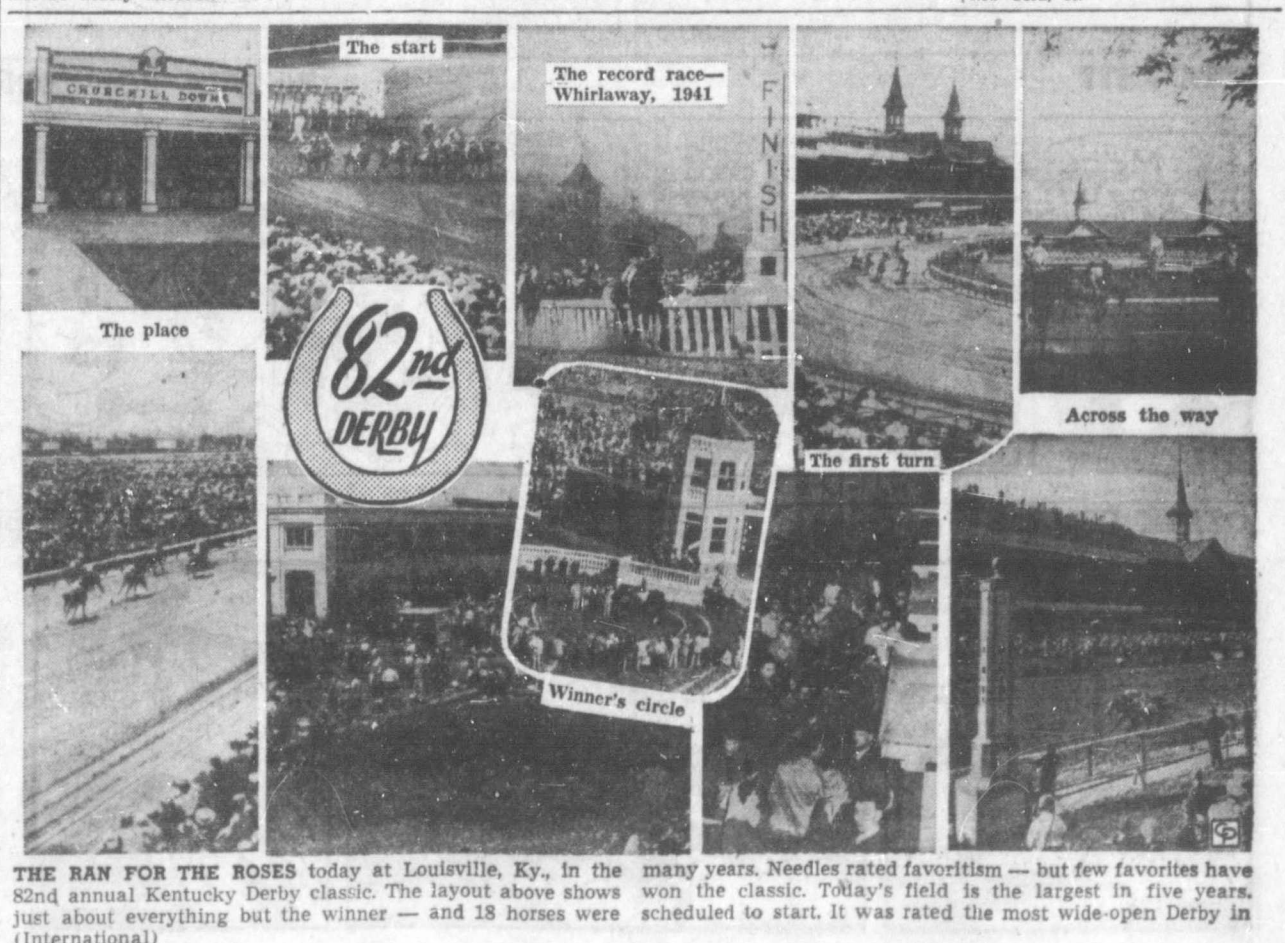

Following a tour of the Big Horn Sheep Refuge they will visit La Quinta, Palm Desert and Palm Springs.

Fight Results

By UNITED PRESS

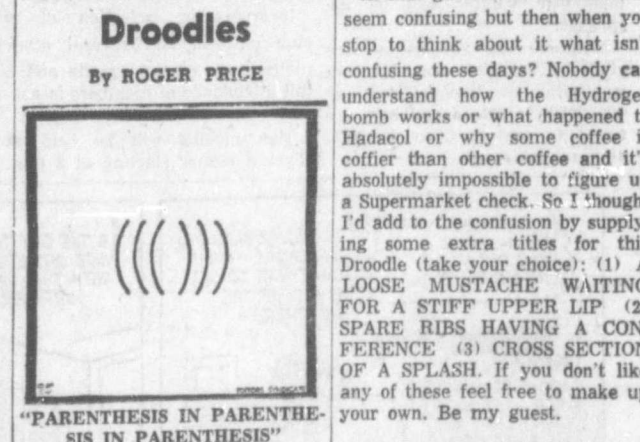

ABIDJAN, Ivory Coast: Fred Gailana, Spain, stopped Jules Touss, Ivory Coast 12, retained European featherweight championship.

WASHINGTON: Chief Hamla, 126½, France, outpointed Ike Chestnut, 128½, New York, 10.

THE RAN FOR THE ROSES today at Louisville, Ky., in the 82nd annual Kentucky Derby classic. The layout above shows just about everything but the winner — and 18 horses were scheduled to start. It was rated the most wide-open Derby in many years. Needles rated favoritism — but few favorites have won the classic. Today's field is the largest in five years.

CAHUILLA SCHOOL'S May Day program was held last night on the school grounds, with an all time record attendance of parents and guests. The three princesses, on the platform above, are Frances Penn, Susan Scholl and Terri McKinnon, and the program was directed by Mrs. Mildred Hopp. Mrs. Sarah Jean Jenkins was in charge of the skits. Brad Davis, principal of the school, said that the affair was one of the most successful ever held at the school. (Desert Sun Photo)

The Good...and...The Bad

IN THE WEEK'S NEWS
By UNITED PRESS

The Good

1. The foreign ministers of the 15 countries which belong to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization held what promised to be a historic conference in Paris.

They proposed to broaden the basis of their alliance to cover economic and social cooperation. The alliance was formed in 1949 as a purely military agreement, to meet what appeared to be the threat of imminent Soviet Russian aggression.

The danger of war has lessened. But Russia's new "peace and smile" campaign, offers a new threat — that the Allies will be bugged into forgetting that the aim of Communism is still world domination.

Hence the broadening of "NATO's" basis aimed at strengthening allied teamwork in a new phase of the cold war.

2. QUIT-WORKING Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold reported to the United Nations that he had succeeded in arranging cease-fire agreements between Israel and its Arab neighbors.

Hammarskjold went to the Middle East under instructions by the U.N. to try to stop the frontier incidents which seemed about to explode into open warfare.

He announced the cease-fire agreements in a preliminary report which left no doubt that he considered his mission a success. He will make a final report next week.

3. THE UNITED STATES gave Communist Poland a stern warning against putting pressure on Polish refugees in this country to return home.

Previously two members of the Soviet mission to the U.N. had been ordered out of the country for putting similar pressure on Russian refugees.

In London, it was reported that Prime Minister Anthony Eden had urged Soviet Premier Nikolai S. Bulganin and Communist party chief Nikita S. Khrushchev to free 200 leading anti-Communists imprisoned in Iron Curtain countries.

The Bad

1. There was anxiety in Washington over the lag in production of intercontinental bombing planes capable of carrying H-bombs.

Gen. Curtis LeMay, chief of the Strategic Air Command, told a Senate sub-committee that at the present production rates, Russia would surpass the United States in intercontinental striking power in the 1958-1960 period.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson admitted at a press conference that Russia is outstripping the United States in intercontinental bomber production.

2. FRENCH PREMIER Guy Mollet was forced to ask a series of votes of confidence in Parliament on his social security and tax-increase program.

He won the first vote and was expected to win the others. But the votes emphasized the seriousness of France's political situation rather than representing a victory for Mollet.

Continued terrorism in North Africa plagued Mollet also. In Morocco, to which France has given independence, extremists tortured and murdered Moroccan moderates and opened a campaign of arson.

3. REBELS AGAINST President Fulgencio Batista attacked an army post in Cuba. Fifteen rebels were killed and 15 rebels and soldiers wounded.

The outbreak was attributed to supporters of former President Carlos Prio Socarras, whom Batista ousted by a coup in 1952. Previously there had been anti-Batista riots by university students. Dispatches from Havana indicated that the internal situation probably would get increasingly turbulent in weeks and months to come.

New 6-Pound Girl for David Fishers

Mr. and Mrs. David J. Fisher, 2096 South Palm Canyon Drive, are the parents of a six pound 13 ounce girl, born Thursday night at Desert Hospital. They have one other child, Sherie, 3.

Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Helen Beverly Stute, 1628 North Riverside Drive, and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fisher of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

2 Private Atom Power Plants to Build this Year

WASHINGTON (UP)—Private industry will begin actual construction this year on its first two large-scale nuclear plants to provide electricity for commercial use.

Consolidated Edison Co., New York, and Commonwealth Edison Co., Chicago, made its plans public after receiving permits Friday from the Atomic Energy Commission.

Consolidated Edison said it expects to break ground this fall for a $55 million atomic power plant in Westchester County. Its atomic reactor should begin generating electricity in 1960.

Using nuclear and conventional fuels in combination, the plant will generate 236,000 kilowatts of electricity.

Ike's Nominee to Circuit Court Under Debate

WASHINGTON (UP)—A Senate judiciary subcommittee today took up the controversial nomination of Solicitor General Simon E. Sobeloff to the U.S. Circuit Court.

Sobeloff argued the winning federal side in the famed anti-school segregation case before the Supreme Court.

A group of southern senators strongly oppose his nomination to the judiciary because of his role in the integration decision. They contend he would not be impartial in cases involving states' rights.

President Eisenhower nominated Sobeloff to fill a vacancy on the Fourth Circuit Court in July, 1955. But Congress adjourned before the nomination

Dag Returning with New Peace Plan for Mid-East

ROME (UP)—United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold files back today to New York with a report recommending a new truce measure to keep peace in the Middle East.

Contents of the report were kept secret, but informed sources said it is expected to contain these points, among others:

1. The truce teams in Palestine at present lack the mobility necessary to head off incidents before they happen. Unable to cross border areas at will and limited in manpower, the truce-keepers arrive at the scene after the match has already been set to the tinder box.

2. The UN needs an observation post in the Gaza strip.

3. The terms "cease fire" and "self defense" are getting new definitions in the Middle East.

The sources said that the chain of cease-fire accords which Hammarskjold hammered out between Israel and its neighbors — Egypt, Syria, Lebanon and Jordan — should mean that "no one shoots across a neutral strip in self defense."

Group to Push Hospital Bonds Formed Here

Formation of a Palm Springs committee to acquaint the voters with the need for passage of the $2,404,000 bond issue for addition of facilities to Riverside County Hospital, was announced today by Dr. Benjamin Goldberg, special consultant to the county supervisors on hospital planning.

The bond election will be held at the primary June 5.

Preliminary planning for the local part of the county-wide campaign being organized by Dr. Goldberg was held yesterday noon at a luncheon meeting at Chi Chi.

Co-chairmen here are Herb Samson, Jerry Sanborn, William Tackett, Jerome Richardson, Dr. Wallace Mulder and Mrs. Fred Morrison.

Other members include: Earl Coffman, Ray Sorum, Mrs. Margaret Meilink, George E. Cameron, Jr., Ted McKinney, Leonard Wolf, Jr., Harold Hicks, Ruth Hardy, Dr. P. A. Staley, Rabbi Leon Rosenberg, Florian G. Boyd, Rev. William Blondon, Louis Dubin, A. R. Simon, Rev. R. M. O'Donohue, Irwin Schuman, Adrain Rosen, Rev. Jack Morrow, Frank Miller, Monte Warshawer, Dr. John Nevins.

Dr. Goldberg explained the need for passage of the bond election, pointing out unless various parts of the county hospital are rebuilt, there will not be a county hospital. Various parts of the present structure are condemned, he explained.

Present at the meeting was Supervisor George Berkey.

MISS UNIVERSE contest which gets underway May 15 with the preliminary competition for the selection of Miss Palm Springs of 1957 is reaching a high pitch of interest. The contestant selected here in the Starlite Room of the Chi Chi will go on to represent Palm Springs in Hollywood where she will compete for the title of Miss California and then on to Long Beach where competitions will be held for the Miss Universe contest. Shown above are two of the Village's local lovelies who tied for honors last year, left to right, Sharon Curran, Actor Dan Dallery and Pat Pucunas. (Anderson photo).

Rhee Asks West to Shoo Chinese Out of Korea

SEOUL (UP)—President Syngman Rhee called on the West today for an "ultimatum" to the Communists to get Chinese troops out of Korea. He expressed confidence that such a demand would lead to war.

"I am not proposing reopening the hot war against Communism," the 81-year-old Korean patriot said in written interview. "The Communists will not fight a war until they are ready, and then nothing we can do—except surrender—will dissuade them."

He said he is sure neither Russia nor Red China is willing to present to renew the Korean War.

Rhee's Main Election Opponent Dies

CHUNGJU, Korea (UP)—P. H. Shimicky, regarded as the only man in Korea with a chance to unseat aging President Syngman Rhee, collapsed and died here today only 10 days before the presidential election.
